Ingredients (Serves 2)

- 10 oz. Diced Chicken Thighs
- 8 oz. Broccoli Florets
- 5.47 oz. Long Grain White Rice
- 0.9 oz. Butter
- 1 Tbsp. Gochujang Red Pepper Paste
- 2 Green Onions
- 0.4 fl. oz. Tamari Soy Sauce
- 1 Tbsp. Cornstarch
- 1 tsp. Asian Garlic, Ginger & Chile Seasoning
- 1/2 tsp. Multicolor Sesame Seeds

You'll Need

- 1 Large Non-Stick Pan
- 2 Mixing Bowls
- 1 Small Pot
- 1 Plate

Before You Cook

- Wash hands thoroughly with soap and warm water before cooking and after handling raw meat or seafood
- Remove all produce from any packaging or constraints, then thoroughly rinse and pat dry
- Ingredient(s) used more than once: green onions

Instructions

1. Cook the Rice

Bring a small pot with rice and 1 1/4 cups water to a boil.

Once boiling, reduce to a simmer, cover, and cook until rice is tender, 15-18 minutes.

Remove from burner and set aside.

Stir in half the white portions of green onions (prepared in next step; reserve remaining for dry-fry mixture), 1/4 tsp. salt, and a pinch of pepper until combined. Fluff with a fork.

While rice cooks, continue recipe.

2. Prepare the Ingredients

Cut broccoli into bite-sized pieces.

Trim and thinly slice green onions, keeping white and green portions separate.

Pat chicken thighs dry. Season all over with Asian garlic, ginger & chile seasoning (use less if spice-averse). Don't worry about trimming. Excess fat will render while cooking and add flavor.

Combine chicken and cornstarch in a mixing bowl. Stir until evenly coated. Set aside.

3. Make the Sauce

Place a large non-stick pan over medium heat.

Add butter to hot pan. Stir occasionally until butter smells "nutty," turns golden, and brown flecks appear, 4-6 minutes.

Stir in soy sauce, 2 Tbsp. water, and gochujang (to taste) until combined, 1-2 minutes.

Transfer sauce to another mixing bowl and set aside. Wipe pan clean and keep over medium heat. Pan will be hot! Use caution.

4. Start the Dry-Fry

Add 1 tsp. olive oil to hot pan.

Add chicken and stir occasionally until chicken is slightly browned and reaches a minimum internal temperature of 165 degrees, 5-7 minutes.

Transfer chicken to a plate. Keep pan over medium heat; no need to wipe clean.

5. Finish Dry-Fry and Finish Dish

Add 1 tsp. olive oil to hot pan.

Add remaining white portions of green onions and a pinch of salt. Stir occasionally until slightly browned, 1-2 minutes.

Add broccoli and 1/4 cup water. Cover and cook until water is almost completely evaporated, 4-6 minutes.

Uncover and add 1/4 tsp. salt and a pinch of pepper. Stir occasionally until broccoli is tender, 2-3 minutes.

Reduce heat to low. Add chicken and sauce. Stir to combine and bring to a simmer.

Once simmering, remove from burner.

Plate dish as pictured on front of card, topping rice with dry-fry mixture. Garnish with green portions of green onions and sesame seeds. Bon appétit!
